FRAUD RISK IN STAFFING SERVICE AND UNBILLED REVENUE
CLASSIFICATION	Fraud
ASSERTIONS	occurrence, accuracy, cutoff
WORKPAPERS	revenue

The revenue-recognition fraud presumption is retained for staffing service and unbilled revenue because timing, occurrence, or measurement could be intentionally misstated.

PLANNED RESPONSE	Corroborate staffing service and unbilled revenue to source evidence and test year-end cutoff and unusual terms.
TIMING	year end and the applicable cutoff window
EXTENT	all qualitatively risky items plus the risk-calibrated selection
UNPREDICTABLE ELEMENT	No
PLANNED RESPONSE	Select an unpredictable staffing service and unbilled revenue stratum, location, or period.
TIMING	year end and the applicable cutoff window
EXTENT	all qualitatively risky items plus the risk-calibrated selection
UNPREDICTABLE ELEMENT	Yes

STATUS	Planned Open
APPROVED TIME, UNBILLED REVENUE, AND PAYROLL CUTOFF
CLASSIFICATION	Significant
ASSERTIONS	occurrence, completeness, cutoff
WORKPAPERS	revenue, payroll

The linkage of approved hours, payroll, billing, and unbilled revenue creates a heightened cutoff and completeness risk.

PLANNED RESPONSE	Reconcile approved time to invoices, payroll, rates, overtime, and period-end accruals.
TIMING	year end and the applicable cutoff window
EXTENT	all qualitatively risky items plus the risk-calibrated selection
